

Avian Influenza Bans

Azerbaijan currently prohibits the import of all poultry and egg products, including heat treated ones from the State of Arkansas, and from any State within 400 km of Arkansas.

Products produced prior to July 9, 2008 are exempt. However, special certification related to product date is likely required.