

Foreign Animal Diseases of Interest to Category I Veterinarians

| Diseases seen in cats | Diseases seen in dogs |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| Feline spongiform encephalopathy | Glanders |
| Glanders | Louping ill |
| Hendra | Nipah virus infections |
| Screwworms | Rift Valley fever |
| Surra | Screwworms |
| Trypanosomiasis | Surra |
| Rift Valley Fever | Trypanosomiasis |
| Diseases seen in rabbits | Diseases seen in ferrets |
| Epizootic lymphangitis | Heartwater |
| Rabbit hemorrhagic disease | Screwworms |
| Screwworms | |
| Trypanosomiasis | |
| Diseases seen in pet birds | Diseases seen in guinea pigs, hamsters, or other pet rodents* |
| Fowl typhoid | Glanders |
| Highly pathogenic avian influenza | Screwworms |
| Newcastle disease | Trypanosomiasis |
| Screwworms | |

*Mice and rats have been experimentally infected with numerous foreign animal diseases, in addition to the diseases listed here.

This information was developed by staff veterinarians at the CFSPH for use as training materials for the USDA APHIS National Veterinary Accreditation Program.

