Information

4700 River Road
Unit 50
Riverdale, MD

Agency employees conducted a thorough search of their files and located 30 pages of responsive records. However, this information is being withheld under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). This exemption protects information from disclosure when its release would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The same information is being withheld under FOIA Exemption 7(C), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C). This exemption protects from disclosure records or information collected for law enforcement purposes when its release could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Specifically, we withheld the identities of various federal employees as well as personal identifiable information, such as third party names, phone number, address, social security number, and date of birth.

You may appeal our partial denial of this information. If you choose to appeal, your appeal must be in writing and must be received at the following office within 45 days of the date of this letter.
