

CASENO	FIRSTNAME	LASTNAME	Affiliation	DateReceived
11-669	Drew	Kershen	University of Oklahoma	22-Jul-11
11-671	Kateryna	Rakowsky	Center for Food Safety	22-Jul-11

11-690

Andrew

Deeringer

The Center for Food Safety

27-Jul-11

Subject	CLOSUREDATE	PROGRAM
Requesting opinion letter and regarding maize (corn) transgenic that did not involve any plant pest or pest components. Also any affiliated letters/documents from Pioneer seeking the letter or affiliated letters/documents opposing Pioneer's request. requesting information in regard to following statement from USDA Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service February 15, 2011 National Environmental Policy Act Decision and Finding of No Significant Impact: Syngenta Seeds, Inc. Alpha-Amylase Maize Event 3272 at Docket No. APHIS-2007-0016-0298, p. 4: "The number of ethanol plants prepared to accept event 3272 corn is currently limited to one functional ethanol plant and two facilities likely for use in 2011". Specifically requesting: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Name and location of all corn ethanol facilities converted and/or otherwise prepared, or anticipating conversion or preparation, to accept Event 3272 corn in the reasonably foreseeable future; 2. Specific location of acreage currently planted with Event 3272 that will supply any and all ethanol plants prepared and/or converted to accept Event 3272 in the reasonably foreseeable future; 3. Specific location of acreage to be planted 		BRS <hr/> BRS

Requesting the following information:

- Permit number 11-122-101r;
- All correspondence to or from APHIS concerning Permit number 11-122-101r;
- All documents and internal communications within APHIS regarding Permit number 11-122-101r, including any and all NEPA documentation.

BRS