Dear Licensee:

We are pleased to inform you that you have met the licensing requirements under the Animal Welfare Act (AWA). Accordingly, we are enclosing a copy of your approved application (APHIS Form 7003A), along with the official license certificate, which is suitable for display.

Please note the license expiration date; each year, you are required to submit your license renewal application and renewal fees on or before the expiration date. The appropriate forms and instructions will be sent to you at least 60 days prior to the expiration date -- this will serve as the sole reminder that your license is nearing expiration.

In addition to maintaining your facility and animals in accordance with the AWA regulations and standards, you must keep current, accurate records -- including a written program of veterinary care. We have enclosed a supply of forms to assist you in maintaining your records in the prescribed manner. You must also notify this office by certified mail of any change of name, address, management, or substantial control or ownership of your business within 10 days of the change.

We appreciate your efforts in complying with the Animal Welfare Act. Contact this office at (970) 494-7478 if you have any questions regarding this letter or the Animal Welfare Act.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Gibbens, D V M

USDA Prelicense Procedures

Thank you for submitting your application for a USDA Animal Welfare license. Your inspector will be Warren Striplin. He will be contacting you soon by telephone to schedule your first prelicense inspection. If you need to contact him beforehand, you may leave a voicemail message by calling 970-494-7470. Your inspector will return your call.

The purpose of this information sheet is to ensure your understanding of the prelicensing procedures of the USDA. These procedures pertain to all applicants for USDA animal welfare licenses. If you have any questions about them, it is important to request clarification from your inspector or the regional office.

1. You must recognize that federal law does not allow you to conduct activities (e.g., exhibit, buy or sell animals) until you are in possession of a valid license. To conduct activities regulated by the Animal Welfare Act without holding a valid license is a violation of the law and could subject you to prosecution.
2. The official prelicensing process begins with your first inspection. If you fail the first inspection, you will have two additional chances to demonstrate compliance. If you do not become licensed within 90 days of that first inspection, your application will be canceled and you must wait six (6) months, before reapplying. (If more than 90 days is necessary due to any delay caused by USDA, or due to unavoidable extenuating circumstances, the regional office may extend your prelicensing period; however, your written request must be received before the expiration of the original 90-day period.) When you have corrected any noncompliant items documented by your inspector on your first inspection, you must contact your inspector to make an appointment for a second inspection.
3. A Program of Veterinary Care statement needs to be signed by your veterinarian before the inspector visits for the first prelicense inspection. It should be kept with your paperwork at all times.
4. You must have a written record of animals on hand at the time of your prelicense inspection. Copies of these forms are included for your convenience.
5. When you pass a prelicense inspection (i.e., all of the items covered on the inspection comply with USDA regulations and standards), the inspector will notify the regional office. If your inspector does not collect your annual license fee, you will receive a request to submit the appropriate license fee. After all documents are received by the regional office you should receive a license certificate by mail.
6. If, at any time, you have questions regarding the prelicensing process, feel free to contact your inspector via the voicemail number above or the regional office at the address or telephone number shown above. We look forward to working with you as a future licensee.
