

Locating a Merit Promotion position on USAJOBS

If you are applying for a merit promotion / status position, the position will only appear if [ALL Jobs (I'll Determine If I Can Apply)] is selected.

The screenshot shows the USAJOBS search results page. At the top, there are navigation links for "Search Jobs", "My Account", and "Info Center", along with a "SIGN IN OR CREATE AN ACCOUNT" button. The search criteria are "What: (keywords) 6VS-2010-0060" and "Where: (city, state or zip code)". The search results are displayed in a table with columns for "Closing", "Job Summary", "Agency", "Location", and "Salary". A callout box titled "Current Search" is overlaid on the page, showing two radio button options: "Only Jobs Open To ALL U.S. Citizens" and "ALL Jobs (I'll Determine If I Can Apply)". The second option is selected and circled in red. A large arrow points from the text "Must select [All Jobs]" to this option. Another arrow points from the "ALL Jobs" option to the "Salary" column of the search results table.

Be sure to check the [Detailed View] and see the [Who May Apply] section to verify you have selected the appropriate vacancy.

The screenshot shows the USAJOBS search results page with the "DETAILED VIEW" tab selected and circled in red. The search results are displayed in a table with columns for "Closing", "Job Summary", "Agency", "Location", and "Salary". Two job listings are shown. The first listing is for "Program Analyst" at "Agriculture, Animal & Plant Health Inspection Service" with a salary of "$89,033.00+". A callout box titled "Status candidates ONLY" points to the "Who May Apply" section of this listing, which says "Status Candidates". The second listing is also for "Program Analyst" at "Agriculture, Animal & Plant Health Inspection Service" with a salary of "$89,033.00+". A callout box titled "Open to ALL U.S. Citizens" points to the "Who May Apply" section of this listing, which says "Public".
