Certification Statements:

1. Birds covered by this certificate do not originate from flocks nor had contact with any birds or poultry originating in a control zone established by state/provincial/Federal animal health authorities due to outbreaks of Newcastle disease or Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI).

OTHER INFORMATION:

A person may import in his or her personal possession, without permit, birds of the parrot family or song birds, with declaration to Canadian Customs that the birds have been in his or her personal possession and not in contact with other birds during the 90 days prior to entry into Canada. Not more than one member of a family may import birds under these requirements during any 90-day period. The Canadian Declaration Form (AGR 1553) is available from Canadian Customs at the port of entry. NOTE: For import purposes, the term pet bird means a personally owned and cared for bird, and applies only to species commonly known as caged birds such as psittacines (birds in the parrot family), song birds, toucans, canaries, finches, cardinals, etc. The term does not apply to pigeons, doves, species of wild or domesticated fowl, or game birds.
