(porcine blood products for animal feeding) - March 2019

Chile's Animal Health Department (Departamento de Protección Pecuaria, Servicio Agrícola y Ganadero, Ministerio de Agricultura) in their resolution 6539/2011 requires that certification statements in all animal health certificates be in Spanish as well as the national language of the certifying country.

Dairy for human consumption produced in the United States should be certified by USDA Agricultural Marketing Service. AMS has an approved bilingual certificate for Chile.
