The monthly flock certification is not the export certificate for turkey meat to New Zealand. Information concerning the export of turkey meat to New Zealand can be found on the FSIS Export Library. The monthly flock certification is to be submitted to FSIS to enable endorsement of the FSIS letterhead certificate for turkey meat to New Zealand. This monthly flock certificate must be dated within the previous 30 days of the date of slaughter. This certificate is for U.S. use only and should not be sent to New Zealand with the export certificate. The APHIS accredited veterinarian must have Category II accreditation in the State where the flock is located to sign the flock health certificate.
