What To Include in a FOIA Request

Include the following information in your FOIA request:

1. Requester's name, email address and/or postal mailing address, and telephone number
2. The institution on whose behalf the request is being made (if applicable)
3. A specific description of the requested records
 - The APHIS FOIA office can process a request for specific records more quickly than a request for "all information."
 - To the extent possible, supply specific information, including dates, titles, names of individuals, names of offices, locations, names of agencies or other organizations, and contract or grant numbers, that may help in identifying the records requested. If the request relates to pending litigation, the requester should identify the court and its location in addition to a case number.

- The fees for specific and limited requests are often less than for more general requests.

4. A statement about requester's willingness to pay fees, including any limitations to paying fees
