NAHMS Aquaculture Studies

Last Modified:

NAHMS is currently conducting outreach to cast a wider net to be more comprehensive in serving the diverse sectors of the aquaculture industry.

If you would like to provide input on future aquaculture studies for your sector, species, or region, please contact us at nahms@usda.gov.

NAHMS is a nonregulatory program of APHIS Veterinary Services.

NAHMS conducted studies on catfish production and health in 2010, 2003, and 1997.
