Why Create Certificates of Veterinary Inspection Electronically in the VSPS Interstate Module?

Last Modified:

VSPS is FREE to all users (accredited veterinarians, health technicians, NVSL-approved labs and State animal health officials). There are many benefits when you create an electronic certificate of veterinary inspection:

- • It saves time!
- • They’re much easier to read than paper forms.
- • They assist State health officials in tracking livestock movements in and out of their States.
- • They’re easily searchable to find animal identification and to locate animal certificates.
- • You can electronically store all of your documents in one place.
- • It’s easier to share information with State and other animal health officials.
- • It’s easier to share documents between practice members.
