

FIND IT. REPORT IT. SAVE TREES.
1-866-702-9938
ASIANLONGHORNEDBEETLE.com

HOW TO CHECK YOUR TREES:

- Take 10 minutes.
- Look for signs of the beetle.
- Report any sightings.
- August is "tree check" month.

United States Department of Agriculture

CHECK YOUR TREES FOR THE ASIAN LONGHORNED BEETLE (also known as ALB)

REPORT IT AT
1-866-702-9938
ASIANLONGHORNEDBEETLE.com

Long black antennae
with white bands

Actual size

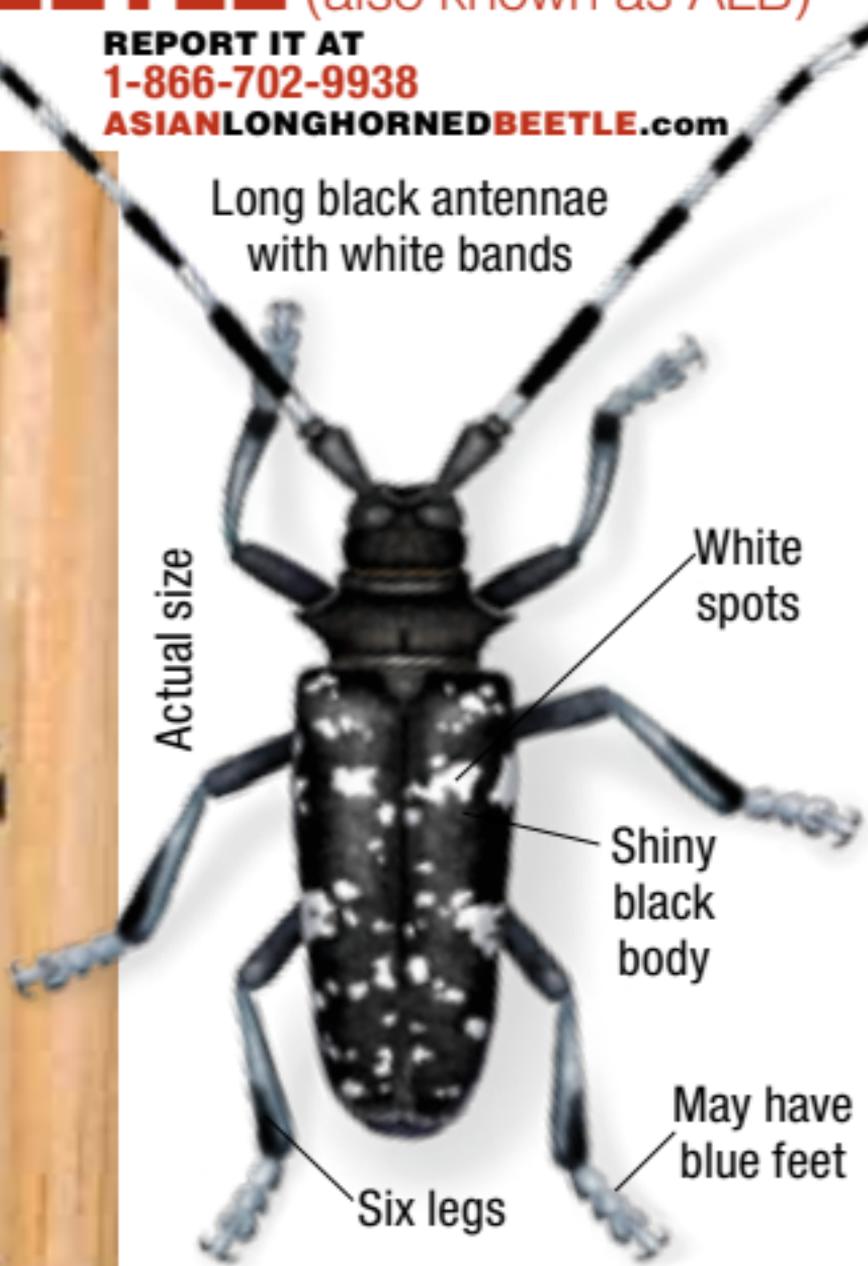

White spots

Shiny
black body

May have blue feet

Six legs

Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service

LOOK FOR THE SIGNS

You can see the adult ALB from June through October, but you can spot the signs year-round.

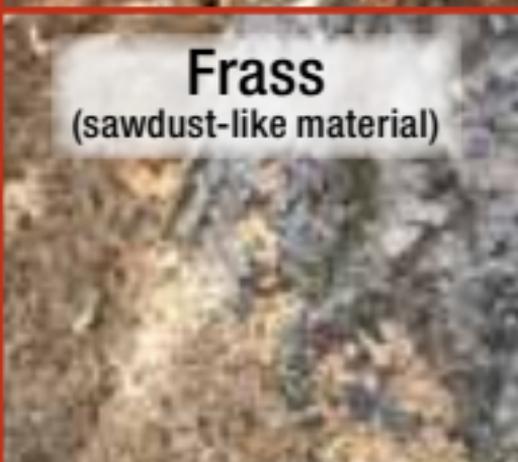

Adult beetle

Round exit hole

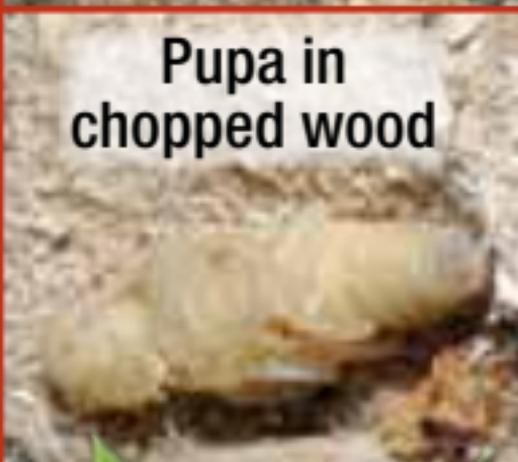

Egg sites on bark

Frass
(sawdust-like material)

Larva in chopped wood

Pupa in chopped wood

TREES ATTACKED:

- Ash
- Birch
- Elm
- Golden raintree
- Hackberry
- Horsechestnut
- Katsura
- London planetree
- Maple
- Mimosa
- Mountain ash
- Poplar
- Willow

Exit hole