

EXPORT OF U.S. DAY-OLD POULTRY AND HATCHING EGGS TO FRENCH POLYNESIA
(CHICKEN AND TURKEY)

The following information is to be endorsed and accompany a VS form 17-6.

1. The United States is free from Egg Drop Syndrome-76 (EDS-76).
2. Export from _____ (location) on _____ (date) and date of inspection (in the past 31 days) _____ (date)
3. The poultry in this shipment originate from a country or a zone<sup>1</sup> compliant with OIE code requirements as free from Newcastle disease and notifiable avian influenza (NAI) which covers highly pathogenic and low pathogenic H7 and H5 viruses as defined in the OIE code.
4. Within 6 months prior to export, the breeder flocks have been subjected to official tests and found negative for avian influenza including low pathogenic strains, Salmonella pullorum, S. gallinarium, S. enteritidis, S. typhimurium, and
(delete as applicable):
Chicken : Mycoplasma gallisepticum, and M. synoviae.
Turkey : Mycoplasma meleagridis
5. Breeder flocks and hatcheries of origin have had no clinical evidence of the following disease in the last 6 months: infectious bursal disease, avian influenza, salmonellosis, avian tuberculosis, fowl pox, pasteurellosis, avian encephalomyelitis, and
(delete as applicable):
Chicken : Marek's disease, avian infectious bronchitis, inclusion body hepatitis, adenovirus, viral arthritis, or avian infectious laryngotracheitis.
Turkey: Turkey hemorrhagic enteritis and Turkey coronavirus enteritis
6. The poultry in this shipment have been vaccinated against the following diseases:
_____ (Marek's disease, infectious bursal disease and fowl pox are the only vaccines allowed).
7. The hatchery from which the eggs originated is officially NPIP approved.

Hatchery/Accredited Veterinarian

_____ (Name) _____ (date)

Federal Veterinarian

_____ (Name) _____ (date)

<sup>1</sup> Zone is defined as county.