

The export health certificate for laboratory mice/opossums to South Korea should contain the following two pieces of information:

- 1) The animals are mice OR opossums for laboratory use; and
- 2) The animals are healthy and are not a concern for spreading communicable animal diseases