

Chile - Important information regarding trade bans and other restrictions

Porcine blood products:

The ban placed by Chile on porcine blood products is no longer in place. Exporters are advised to confirm the import requirements with their importers before shipping any porcine blood product.