

Animal Feed Additives
Containing No Animal Origin Ingredients

The Indian government requires that materials containing no animal origin ingredients, imported into India for the preparation of animal feed, be accompanied by the following certification:

"The raw materials/ingredients used in the (particular) feed additive are not of animal origin including aquatic animals and their products."

This statement would be made on a VS Area Office letterhead certificate. No additional certifications about the product should be included.