

STATE OF ISRAEL
MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT
VETERINARY SERVICES AND ANIMAL HEALTH

Model of a Veterinary Certification to Accompany Technical Products Derived from Blood Obtained from Rodents and Lagomorphs to Israel

Exporting Country: United States
Responsible Ministry: USDA, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service
Certifying Department: Veterinary Services

I. Identification

1. Producer (name and address):

2. Description of the product and species: _____

3. Nature of packaging: _____

4. Number of packages: _____ Net Weight: _____

5. Lot/Batch production reference number: _____

II. Origin

1. Consignor (name and address):

2. Port of Loading: _____

3. Means of Transport: _____ Flight/Ship: _____

III. Destination

1. Consignee (name and address):

IV. Declaration

I, the undersigned Official Veterinarian authorized by the Veterinary Services of the United States Department of Agriculture, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, hereby certify based on regular inspections and audits of available records:

1. The producer is a plant which is inspected by the USDA, Animal Plant Health Inspection Service and is approved for the export of these products to Israel.
2. The blood was derived from animals (Select all that apply):
 - a. which were examined by an accredited veterinarian prior to blood collection and were found free of clinical signs of infectious diseases,
 - b. which have undergone ante-mortem inspection and were fit, as a result of such inspection, for slaughter for human consumption;
3. Precautions have been taken to prevent contamination of the product with pathogenic agents;
4. The products are (Select all that apply) :
 - a. labeled with the following: “for in vitro diagnostic use only – to be safely discarded after use.”
 - b. treated by heat, acidification, and/or irradiation. Specify treatment type(s) :

 Signature

 Date

 Name of Endorsing Official

 Title of Endorsing Official