

Certification of Products Containing Animal Origin Ingredients Exported from the United States to Paraguay

Products containing animal origin ingredients which are not specifically identified on the IREG page for export to Paraguay may be exported using an endorsed VS Form 16-4 Export Certificate for Animal Products with no additional declarations.

APHIS advises that importers inquire with Paraguayan Officials (SENACSA) prior to shipping to ensure there are no additional export certification requirements.