

Hides and Trophies of Wild Game Animals

Russia requires certification for most hides and trophies collected from wild game animals that cannot be endorsed by APHIS. APHIS continues effort to reach agreement with the Russian Federation upon an endorsable certificate that will open the market. Some products may be exempt from requirements for government certification. Exporters may wish to work with their importers prior to shipment to confirm if their materials are exempt and can issue Russia with no APHIS certification.