

Antibodies

Taiwan does not require certification for purified antibodies, regardless of the species of origin. The Taiwanese importer should apply to Taiwanese authorities for an import permit.

APHIS does not endorse export certificates for antibodies exported to Taiwan. For information on other blood products, please go back to the previous screen.