

Certification for the Export of Pet Food to Argentina

Argentina prohibits the importation of pet food containing ruminant origin materials from the United States and shipments are subject to species identification testing. However, shipments of pet foods containing ovine ingredients imported from Australia and New Zealand have been acceptable. The export health certificate must clearly identify such ingredients. Exporters are encouraged to check with their importer to verify labeling and import requirements.

Exports of pet food from production plants that also process ruminant material sourced from countries other than Australia or New Zealand should provide evidence of an effective separation protocol. NCIE recommends that export lots of pet food from such production plants be tested to determine apparent freedom from ruminant materials.

Important note: Exports of pet food from production plants that also process ruminant material sourced from countries other than Australia or New Zealand should provide evidence of an effective separation protocol and/or evidence of effective use of flushing. NCIE recommends that export lots of pet food from such production plants be tested with ELISA cooked meat speciation technology to determine freedom from ruminant materials.

An itemized listing of the products containing animal ingredients covered by the certificate should not be part of the certificate. Please note, however, that all invoice numbers covered by the certificate must be listed in the IDENTIFICATION block of the VS form 16-4 and that these invoices must be presented to SENASA with the certificate.

Recommended statements for the VS form 16-4 (JUL 2022) are as follows:

This is to certify that rinderpest, foot-and-mouth disease, classical swine fever, swine vesicular disease, African swine fever, and contagious bovine pleuropneumonia do not exist in the United States of America. / Esto es para certificar que peste bovina, fiebre aftosa, peste porcina clásica, enfermedad vesicular del cerdo, peste porcina africana y pleuroneumonía contagiosa bovina no existen en los Estados Unidos de America.
