OVERVIEW

Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) is a multi-faceted Agency with a broad mission area that includes protecting and promoting U.S. agricultural health, regulating genetically engineered organisms, administering the Animal Welfare Act and carrying out wildlife damage management activities. These efforts support the overall mission of USDA, which is to protect and promote food, agriculture, natural resources, and related issues.

Plant Protection and Quarantine (PPQ) is a program within APHIS which safeguards U.S. agriculture and natural resources against the entry, establishment, and spread of economically and environmentally significant pests, and facilitates the safe trade of agricultural products. Join our team and gain valuable experience working in the field to stop this invasive species from harming our nation's agriculture.

This position is in the Arizona Plant Protection and Quarantine, State Plant Health Office in Phoenix Arizona. The Office Manager is responsible for applying analytical and evaluation methods and techniques to issues concerning the efficiency and effectiveness of program operations, such as budget and fiscal, agreements, travel, payroll, procurement and supply, property, personnel, data processing, records, fleet, mail management and the overall administrative management activities of the office. The incumbent also serves as first point of contact for phone and visitor interaction with stakeholders and cooperators.

This is a career ladder position open to either a GS-06 or GS-07 grade level depending on the candidate's qualifications. If appointed at the GS-06 grade level, the candidate will have advancement eligibility after completing 1 year of satisfactory service.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serves as the office manager; plans, directs, organizes, coordinates, and performs work in all administrative areas.
- Provides administrative guidance in the development of interagency agreements, grants, and memoranda of understanding (MOU).
- Provides substantive support in the analysis and review of historical data and collects information using cost-benefit analysis techniques to determine new and recurring fiscal needs.
- Prepares monthly budget estimates, salary and benefit reports and spreadsheets to determine whether projected spending patterns are consistent.
- Orders and purchases equipment and supplies for the office.
- Maintains an inventory of property, including but not limited to both accountable and nonaccountable property.
- In conjunction with supervisor, reviews and analyzes staffing requirements based on program needs.
