D. I, the undersigned, official veterinarian, hereby certify that:

1. The said tissues were collected from animals found to be clinically healthy prior to collection, and which were not killed to eradicate any epizootic disease. At the time of collection of the said tissues no cases of infectious diseases were observed in these animals and to the best of my knowledge and belief they are not likely to disseminate causative agents of any infectious diseases.
2. The said tissues are packed in new packaging or packaging which has been cleaned and disinfected before use, which is designed to prevent leakage and which is marked by the following: "for in vitro use only – to be safely discarded after use".
3. The said tissues have been collected, handled, packaged, and labeled in an appropriate way to avoid contamination or misuse.
