Certification Statements:

I, the undersigned USDA Accredited Veterinarian, certify to the following statements:

1. The honeybees for export originate from apiaries free of epidemic and infectious diseases as listed by the World Organization of Animal Health (WOAH).
2. The honeybees for export originate from apiaries that are located in a 3 kilometer zone where there have been no outbreaks of American foulbrood (Paenibacillus larvae) or European foulbrood (Melissococcus plutonius) during the 30 days prior to export.
3. The honeybees for export originate from apiaries located in a 50 km radius where no apiary has been subject to any restrictions associated with the occurrence of small hive beetle (Aethina tumida), during the six months prior to export.
4. The honeybees for export originate from apiaries where there have been no confirmed cases of Acarapis woodi (acarapisosis) during the 30 days prior to export.
