2025-APHIS-07165-F	McMurrain, Rebekah	IMG Citrus	On behalf of IMG Citrus, I am writing to formally request a detailed laboratory report regarding a pest interception associated with Moroccan mandarin container SUDU8133863, which was flagged during a U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) inspection. We were notified on April 24, 2025, that the pest was identified as actionable and the container would need to be fumigated.  While we have received the Emergency Action Notification (EAN) that includes the pest ID number: 551398   1703-11828863-DR01   Tineinae, we are seeking the official lab report that provides 1) the technical name of the pest species and 2) explains why the pest was classified as actionable, including any associated risk to U.S. agriculture.  Our goal is to share this information with our supplier to ensure proper corrective actions are taken and to better understand the specific risk posed by this pest.  For reference, the Bill of Lading number is MAEU251525727. The EAN is attached to this FOIA request.	05/30/2025

2025-APHIS-00062-A	Florko, Nicholas	-	To Whom It May Concern: I am submitting this administrative appeal because the response to my FOIA request was incomplete. While my request (submitted April 23, 2025) asked for records "sufficient to show all recipients of all aforementioned investments," the USDA's response provided only a one-page summary of an overall funding obligation, with no documentation identifying recipients of the obligated funds. The agency did not indicate that such records were exempt, did not exist, or could not be located. Therefore, I respectfully request that APHIS conduct an additional search for and release all records that identify the recipients of funds related to the USDA's February 26, 2025 announcement, specifically those tied to "biosecurity measures." Please treat this as a formal appeal of the adequacy of the agency's initial search and response. My original FOIA and USDA's response are attached for reference. Thank you	05/16/2025
