APHIS Administrator Remarks Now Available on Agency Web Site

You may not have been able to attend the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture's recent Winter Policy Conference where APHIS Administrator Dr. Gregory Parham gave remarks, but you can still find out what he said by going to APHIS' new Stakeholder Information Page.

The Agency recently created a link on the right-hand side of the page for Speeches where stakeholders can access Dr. Parham's remarks dating back to June 2011. By posting Dr. Parham's public remarks, APHIS hopes to increase transparency and ensure all interested stakeholders have access to the Administrator's perspective on Agency policies and program activities. The site will be updated following Dr. Parham's future speaking engagements.

In addition to the Administrator's speeches, APHIS' Stakeholder Information page is updated regularly. Add it to your favorites to stay abreast of the latest stakeholder news and information.
